

Adam lay with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and named him Seth, saying, "God has granted me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him. Seth also had a son, and he named him Enosh. At that time men began to call on the name of the Lord. – Genesis 4:25-26

This is the written account of Adam's line. When God created man, he made him in the likeness of God. He created them male and female and blessed them. And when they were created, he called them "man." When Adam had lived 130 years, he had a son in his own likeness, in his own image; and he named him Seth. - Genesis 5:1-3

Matthew's genealogy gives Jesus legal lineage through Joseph. Matthew wrote to the Jews, so Jesus was shown as A descendent of their father Abraham.

Heli is believed to have been Joseph's father-in-law, making Luke a record of Mary's Genealogy.

Luke was written to the gentiles and goes back to Adam, emphasizing Jesus as Savior to all people.

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. - Luke 2:4

"Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!" "Hosanna in the highest!" - Mark 11:10

"After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet. Then the people asked for a king, and he gave them Saul son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled forty years. After removing Saul, he made David their king. He testified concerning him: 'I have found David son of Jesse a man after my own heart; he will do everything I want him to do.'

"From this man's descendants God has brought to Israel the Savior Jesus, as he promised. - Acts 13:21-23

By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. By faith Abraham, even though he was past age...was enabled to become a father ... And so from this one man... came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.

Hebrews 11:8-12

Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time, and he Walked with God.

Genesis 6:9
